

6516209301.txt

As a truck driver its important to know the road conditions early enough for me to plan my routes into the major cities! Without XM radio this would not be possible. waiting until I can receive an FM or Am station and then getting the road info it is to late to plan accordingly. The FCC needs to continue allowing XM radio to broadcast this needed info! Thank You Don Bruce